

Are you a man who has lost a child to abortion?

“...it is essential for the post-abortion man to be honest with himself about his feelings and his fears and to recognize that they are normal responses to his loss.”

C.T. Coyle, Ph.D.

“When a man makes a commitment to seek help resolving his own issues with the past, it’s a new day. A brand-new future starts to unfold for him.”

Guy Condon

Have you experienced any of these symptoms or problems since the abortion, whether it was yesterday or 20 years ago, and whether you were involved in the decision making process or not?

This is only a partial list of symptoms you may be suffering from and you may not even be aware that these symptoms were tied to your abortion experience. If you are suffering from any of these conditions, it is completely normal and you are not alone. Our organization is dedicated to helping men like yourself realize that these feelings and concerns are legitimate and that there is hope for the future. We will help you find meaning and purpose in your life and restore your sense of manhood as well as fatherhood.
